

SEC TEACHER-LED UNIVERSITY IN-PERSON & ONLINE PROGRAM

SEC offers teacher-led university credit courses for Part-Time and Full-Time students. This means you can earn US university credits in-person or via SEC Teacher-Led Live Online courses, while staying safe at home OR even from your home country's time zone!

Part Time Students*:

1) Take your 1st and 2nd year university courses with our highly qualified SEC teachers. You'll meet with your teacher in 1:1 sessions in-person or via Teacher-Led Live Online courses to complete your coursework. 1:1 sessions help you maximize your results and efficiency.

2) Variety of courses offered! SEC has you covered whether you need to complete general education courses (writing, math, etc.) or need help with major prerequisites.

3) Low grades hampering your academic goals? SEC can help you retake low-GPA courses to raise your overall cumulative GPA.

1:1 Part-Time Tuition:

$20,400 + $700 material fee per course.
($120/hour x 170 hours per course)

Full Time Students*:

Take your 1st year university courses with our high quality SEC teachers.

One of the keys to success in college is to build a solid academic foundation. You can build up your skills and knowledge base by working 1:1 with SEC's teachers in your first year.

This will prepare you for more advanced coursework and major prerequisites in your second year.

In addition, working with SEC's teachers in 1:1 session can help you earn a higher GPA thanks to a high level of personalized attention and instruction.

1:1 Full-Time Tuition: (10 courses)

$204,000 Plus $7,000 material fees.
($120/hour x 170 hours per course x 10 courses)

WHAT MAKES SEC DIFFERENT THAN OTHER PROGRAMS?

All University 1:1 courses are taught by highly qualified SEC American teachers. All teachers will teach/lead the whole entire course from the beginning to the final exams.

SEC will arrange all enrolled course session days/times accordingly with highly qualified SEC teachers

All University 1:1 courses are taught in-person or through Teacher-Led Live Online program so you can learn and earn American University Credits from anywhere in the world. You can meet, chat, and learn anywhere in the world just like your real American teacher is right next to you.
